The mission of the Waimea United Church of Christ is to provide, through Jesus Christ, the means by which people grow spiritually, thereby preparing and empowering them to witness to God's love, to identify the needs of the community, and to minister to them.

THE CONNECTION

A Publication of Waimea UCC

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

I have a minor confession to make to you. Sometimes I pull my tongue into my cheek in situations that most reasonable folk would walk away from just to see if God is doing something in the moment that I should not miss. I weigh the inconvenience of the moment to what might turn out to be a really good sermon example on Sunday morning. I go through life with the little voice in the back of my brain asking hypothetically: "Will that preach?" Every dark cloud might have that homiletical silver lining and every rainbow a pot of gold of God's insight.

Recently I was listening to someone else's sermon that was about "self-control" (one of the fruits of the Spirit mentioned by St. Paul in Galatians 5:22 and on). That pastor pointed out that "self-control" means exactly that—I am in control of myself. I have not ceded an inch beyond my own personal boundaries to another's will, this because other folks will take advantage of my being a faithful follower of Christ.

So in light of this godly wisdom, I started to consider an ongoing service issue with the internet provider at the church parsonage. I have been trying for months for the company to acknowledge and repair an ongoing issue of connection intermittency. I have lost track of how many hours I have been on hold with the call service center in Manila. I have taken a day off to meet the service technician at the house, who never showed up, but then came a day later. I have finally found a real person in Honolulu at the company who assured me that my "faith in the company would be restored—just give them a little grace." This style of verbiage made me quite uncomfortable and even more wary.

If I am in control of myself, then the best thing I could do is hire a different internet provider. Right? Why do I give control of my time and energy to a company that also wants my "grace," "faith," and $69+ every month? All the time and energy I have spent should have gone to doing God's work in the ministry. All the grace and faith that I can muster is for picking up the Cross of Jesus and carrying it in this world.

She's also nursing a desperate hope that her beloved cousin Rose, who disappeared in Nazi-occupied France during the war, might still be alive. So, when Charlie's parents banish her to Europe to have her "little problem" taken care of, Charlie breaks free and heads to London, determined to find out what happened to the cousin she loves like a sister.

of our council

Following up on old business saw that the “triangle” lot in Kekaha has been sold.

We have a bit of excess funds after we paid off the loan that had been taken out to build the Smith Lanai. The financial report is on the last three pages of the annual meeting packet.

An item of new business was the approval of Jared Morsey to receive a call from the church to become an ordained minister. He will then embark on theological and ministerial training. Our role as a church is supporting and mentoring.

Worldly things would love to take total control of my life. Have I given control over my life to something that is not of God? Does that mean that God is not in total control? When worldly institutions ask for "faith" is that not a form of idolatry? When worldly entities ask for "grace" is that not taking God's name in vain as true Grace can only flow from the Lord?

Our freedom in Christ, is about our having control of the self. We cannot be enslaved to worldly things and situations. So, I am praying that we all have good self control in the coming year--and beyond. That we keep our faith squarely on God. That Jesus is the source of all Grace for us.

For now, I am only waiting for Jesus! Yours in Christ, Pastor Olaf
