Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

About 2400 years ago in Israel a great calamity took place. An incredible swarm of locust came and devoured the land. The people had suffered from swarms of locust before, but this time was most severe, so much so that even the grain offerings in the Temple were stopped. Famine spread throughout the tribes. One prophet in the Bible spoke to this tragedy in particular. His name was Joel.

The Prophet Joel must have been a rather pragmatic type of religious leader, for when not a seed was to be found in any granary he did call for a religious fast of repentance across the nation. We can read in Joel 1:14, "Sanctify a fast, call a solemn assembly, gather the elders and all the inhabitants of the land to the house of the Lord your God." Right? If there is nothing left to eat, fast and go to church!

The Prophet Joel begins to wonder if God is angry with the people of Israel. I am not even sure if today such an idea crosses our minds. Is God trying to get our attention for something we have done wrong? In which case, the Covid 19 pandemic would leave us fine cause to gather again in the church!

The Prophet Joel relates further that the locust infestation and ensuing famine must surely be a precursor to the coming of the "Day of the Lord." This is to be understood as the coming of the long-awaited Messiah. As Christians today we count this as a foretelling of the coming of Jesus Christ of course.

Here comes the most fascinating fact of Joel's Prophecy as it relates to the coming of Jesus Christ. The Prophet Joel notes that when the "Day of the Lord" comes, we shall all be in the Spirit of God (Joel 2:28), "I will pour out my Spirit on all flesh." The coming of the Spirit is also foretold by Jesus and happens fifty days after his death on the day of Pentecost. We read of this miraculous coming of the Spirit in the Book of Acts, Chapter 2.

The Apostle Peter, handpicked by Jesus, is given to preaching in that moment when everyone was touched by tongues of flame representing the coming of the Holy Spirit upon all flesh. Although Peter was a mere fisherman in Galilee, is therefore quite uneducated, he is able to recite verbatim and in poetic lines the prophecy of Joel! The prophet's words are ringing out over this time of ecstatic reception of the Spirit of God.

Meloux has a vision of danger and leads the Dolores Morriseau and Rainy O'Conner into the forest to elude men who are hunting Dolores. The Body and the Gifts

By Christian Savage of YWAM

God has designed the Body of Christ to be made up of many different parts, each person has a unique set of giftings and spiritual gifts. These gifts are meant not for ourselves, but for serving others (1st Corinthians 12:7, 18-20).

The Bible challenges us to discipline ourselves in our giftings to be prepared in season and out of season. So that we are always ready to be God's hands and feet to this world. We are called to use our gifts and we are warned not to neglect them (1 Timothy 4:14).

We should also discipline ourselves by practicing our gifts in season and out of season (2 Timothy 4:1-2). By using our gifts, we are bringing glory and praise to God (Revelation 19:6-8).

We should take hold of the giftings he has given us and use them to serve and bless others! Every time you give generously, lead zealously, or show mercy cheerfully you are literally making yourself beautiful to God, and he is glorified by this!

We should make every effort to grow in our giftings and to use them for God's glory. Always remember that your gifts are meant to be used to serve others, if you never serve others, it's possible you may never use your gifting.

Application: Read through the verses below and ask God to highlight one of the gifts that he wants you to use. • Romans 12:6-8 • 1 Peter 4:10-11 ESV • 1 Corinthians 12:7-11
